CATECHETICAL CORNER -

SYNODALITY

Synodality is a way of being. It is about sharing our journey in faith together. It is about talking and listening and it is about arriving together to the Kingdom, hopefully not leaving anyone out. The concept of Synodality is not new in the Church. In fact we find the first synodal gathering in the Bible in the Book of the Acts of the Apostles, when the apostles and early leaders of the Church met to decide on an issue that had arisen – Acts 15. The concept of Synodality fell out of practice and was only revived quite recently. Up until the current Synod, synods were only attended by the bishops of the Church, with perhaps some invited guests, such as theologians who were not bishops. However, what is different about this synod is that of the approximately 470 participants only some 300 are bishops the rest are either religious or lay faithful. All the participants are invited, none are there by right and many prominent Church voices have not been invited.

Last week at the Synod participants shared the first reports from the working group discussing Section A of the Instrumentum Laboris. The Instrumentum Laboris is the working document for the Synod. It was compiled from the responses from the National Synthesis Documents of the various countries. Among these reports were many themes that arose as distinctive signs of a synodal Church that emerged with greater clarity and need to be highlighted or deepened. Some of the key themes were: Accompaniment of Migrants, return to the essentials to an outgoing Church, the need to repair the Church – healing and accompanying; formation in seminaries and formation of all GOD's people and how to be a welcoming Church.

Please join in praying for the Synod, especially that the Church will remain united in the truth of Jesus Christ.

Here is the Synod Prayer. It is called the Adsumus, which is the first words of the prayer in Latin:

We stand before You, Holy Spirit, as we gather together in Your name. With You alone to guide us, make Yourself at home in our hearts; Teach us the way we must go and how we are to pursue it. We are weak and sinful; do not let us promote disorder. Do not let ignorance lead us down the wrong path nor partiality influence our actions. Let us find in You our unity so that we may journey together to eternal life and not stray from the way of truth and what is right. All this we ask of You, who are at work in every place and time, in the communion of the Father and the Son, forever and ever. Amen.

Saint of the Week : St. Teresa of Avila

Grant that in all things, great and small, today and all the days of my life, I may do whatever You require of me. Help me respond to the slightest prompting of Your Grace, so that I may be Your trustworthy instrument for Your honor. May Your Will be done in time and in eternity by me, in me, and through me. Amen.

Christ has no body but yours, no hands, no feet on earth but yours. Yours are the eyes with which he looks compassionately on this world. Yours are the feet with which he walks to do good. Yours are the hands, with which he blesses all the world. Yours are the hands.
