TO BE CONFIRMED

"For if he were not expecting that those who had fallen would rise again, it would have been superfluous and foolish to pray for the dead. But if he was looking to the splendid reward that is laid up for those who fall asleep in godliness, it was a holy and pious thought. Therefore he made atonement for the dead, that they might be delivered from their sin." 2 Macc. 12: 44-45

St. Kevin of Glendalough

You were privileged to live in the Age of Saints, O Father Kevin being baptised by one saint, taught by another and buried by a third. Pray to God that He will raise us the saints in our day to help, support and guide us into the Way of salvation.

O great Saint, whose name I am privileged to hear, beneath whose special protection God has confided the care of my salvation, when at baptism I was adopted and made a child of God; do thou help me by thy continual intercession to lead a truly Christian life, and assist me, O gracious protector of my soul, to recover and preserve the grace of Baptism I may have lost by sin. Plead for me before God that I may receive the grace of following faithfully the holy example and being protected by thee both through the length of this troublous life and at the hour of my death, I may rejoice with thee in glory everlasting. Amen.
